Holy Apostle Aquila

By Very Rev. Fr. Lawrence Farley

Aquila was born in Pontus and, with his wife, Priscilla, was made to leave Rome when Emperor Claudius expelled all the Jews. They moved to Corinth, and Aquila worked as a tentmaker along with St. Paul when Paul came to Corinth in about 54. Aquila and his wife did apostolic work together, instructing Apollos in the fullness of the Faith and baptizing him when he came to Ephesus. They worked as Paul's fellow workers, risking their lives to help him (Rom. 16:3-4). They went to Rome and thence to Ephesus, and they always opened their home to meetings of the church. It is said they were martyred.
