Our Holy Father Thomas of Malea

By Very Rev. Fr. Lawrence Farley

Thomas was born to a noble and wealthy family and began a career in the military. His courage and zeal were rewarded, and he became a famous general. He was large and physically strong and was famed for his victories over the barbarians. In his heart, however, he secretly desired the life of solitude lived by the prophet Elijah. He renounced the world and went to live in the solitude of the desert on a mountain called Malea near Mount Athos. The zeal he had showed in the service of the earthly emperor he continued to show in the service of the heavenly King, and God rewarded his ascetic fervor by granting him gifts of healing. When he stood in prayer, he seemed to be a pillar of fire. His holy solitude was discovered, and many came to him to seek his wisdom and his prayers. He died in peace in the tenth century.
