WEDDING BANNS Announcement # 2 ~~

Rebekkah Gresh and Paul Simkovich will be united in Sacrament of Holy Matrimony on Saturday, October 12.

As Rebekkah announced last Sunday, they are inviting their Parish Family to their wedding celebration! Everyone is welcome! To ensure that there will be enough food and drink at the reception, please stop by the candlestand and add your name to RSVP sheet.

Council News: Today, there will be a special collection taken for IOCC to aid the Hurricane victims in the Bahamas as well as the following Sunday after Liturgy.

It has been brought to our attention that Marie as of late is having difficulty removing grass from the rugs in the entrance vestibule. The grass becomes embedded in the microfibers of the rug's nap. We ask that you utilize the sidewalks (which are kept swept) when entering the church. Thank you for your help and consideration in this matter.

Collection: Sept. 22nd: $1,275

Our Holy Father Cyriacus the Hermit

By Very Rev. Fr. Lawrence Farley

Cyriacus was born in Corinth and was made a reader in the church there while still a young man. He went to Jerusalem at the age of eighteen and visited many holy monks in Palestine—St. Euthymius, St. Gerasim, and St. Chariton. He was very ascetic, living for years eating only raw vegetables. It is said of him that the sun never saw him eat (for he ate only once a day in the evening) and never saw him angry at anyone. He died in peace in 557.
