The Nativity of the Most Holy Mother of God

By Very Rev. Fr. Lawrence Farley

The Theotokos was born to Joachim and Anna in response to their faith and prayers. Anna was barren, and she could not conceive. After much prayer, God gave her conception, and she gave birth to a daughter who, as God foreknew, would become the Mother of Jesus. For Mary was to be the true daughter of Zion into whose midst God would come to dwell (Zeph. 3:14-15). From her birth God watched over her to prepare her for the work to which He would call her at the Annunciation—that of being the Most Holy Theotokos. As St. John the Forerunner was filled with the Holy Spirit from the womb and cared for by God for his mission, so was Mary from her birth also prepared for her holy vocation. Thus, her birth proclaims joy to the whole universe, for from her would be born Christ our God, who grants us eternal life.
